

VACANCY:

COMMUNICATION MANAGER

The Cocoa Sustainability Partnership (CSP) is a public-private partnership of cocoa industry stakeholders and supporters. CSP is working to achieve a sustainable, profitable and competitive cocoa industry in Indonesia for mutual benefit of all stakeholders. Further info on CSP may be found on: www.cspindonesia.org.

CSP has received commitment from IFC (International Finance Corporation) to fund a position of COMMUNICATION MANAGER, and is now seeking candidates to fill in the position. The Communication Manager is responsible to collect and disseminate information about CSP activities, build and maintain relationship amongst CSP partners and other stakeholders related to the cocoa industry, and to promote CSP to the wider scope of audiences. The communication manager is the hub that engages all partners to develop mutually beneficial collaborations.

Qualifications and Position Requirements:

- Well-developed skills in writing, especially in “journalist reporting” style, preferably with proven track record of creative-writing in communication, public relation, or marketing.
- Good interpersonal skills, self-initiated, result-oriented, and capable to work under-pressure both independently and in a team setting.
- Capable to communicate in English comfortably and confidently.
- Bachelor degree (S1) in communication, literature, agriculture or related fields.
- Knowledge of cocoa industry and agribusiness is an advantage

Interested applicants should email their application letter along with CV and examples of his/her writing products, by 28 February 2011 at the latest, to info@cspindonesia.org, or mail to: CSP Secretariat, Jln Dr. Soetomo 26, Makassar 90113. Only short-listed candidates will be notified.

==xxoo000ooxx==