NEW ZEALAND ASEAN SCHOLARS AWARDS

NEW ZEALAND ASEAN SCHOLARS AWARDS

New Zealand ASEAN Scholars awards empower individuals with the knowledge, skills and qualifications to contribute to economic, social and political development within ASEAN nations. Scholarship recipients are required to return to their home country within 14 days of completing their scholarship to work for a minimum period of two years in order to achieve this.

APPLICATION CHECKLIST

It is important that you correctly fill out all relevant sections in this application form and include all relevant documents listed below. Applications with unanswered questions or incomplete documentation will not be considered for a scholarship.

Supporting documents provided with this application must be certified true copies of original documents with the official stamp and signature of a Justice of the Peace, Solicitor, Notary Public, an official from the New Zealand Diplomatic Post, or another authorised official. Where original documents are not in English, you must provide certified true copies of official English translations.

All New Zealand ASEAN Scholars award applicants must provide TWO copies of this application form (one original copy and one photocopy), completed in English. Each copy of the application form must include:

- A signed application declaration on page 11.
- A certified copy of your birth certificate (in English).
- A certified copy of official evidence of any name change (in English).
- A certified copy of the personal pages of your passport.
- For applicants applying for undergraduate study only (where eligible), a certified copy of your official secondary school results and the grading schedule for each qualification (in English).
- For all applicants applying for postgraduate study, a certified copy of the academic transcript for all tertiary qualifications and the grading schedule for each qualification (in English).
- A certified copy of the completion or graduation certificate for each tertiary qualification that you have completed (in English).
- The original international English proficiency test result, e.g. IELTS or TOEFL. Photocopies will not be accepted. Test results must be no more than 24 months old by the commencement of study.
- If you are employed, a current job description confirming your position and outlining your responsibilities and duties.
- A current (dated) curriculum vitae - a brief history of your education, work experiences and skills.
- Three references (no more than 24 months old) on official letterhead, supporting your scholarship application to study in New Zealand. References should be provided from your current employer and a former lecturer (or school principal for undergraduate applicants), and where possible, a relevant government or community-based organisation.
- A 500 word statement describing the specific skills and knowledge you want to gain from your proposed study and how this will contribute to your current and/or future job.
- A 500 word statement describing how your proposed area of study will enable you to contribute to the social or economic development of your home country.
- For Masters and Doctoral research students*, a 500 word statement outlining your proposed research topic.

Conditions of Scholarship

If your application is successful and you are offered a New Zealand ASEAN Scholars award, you will be asked to sign a declaration which confirms that you understand and agree to certain conditions before accepting the scholarship. Some of these conditions are listed below. Contact the New Zealand Embassy for a full listing of these conditions.

In accepting, you will be asked to:

- agree to the study programme included in the Letter of Scholarship Offer and the fact that this must not be changed without the prior written approval of MFAT;
- agree to achieve satisfactory academic progress in your studies in accordance with the continuation criteria set by MFAT and the Education Institution or your scholarship may be terminated;
- agree to obey the laws of New Zealand and maintain an acceptable standard of conduct while in New Zealand;
- agree that the New Zealand Government is not responsible for any of your actions during the term of your scholarship;
- agree that you will not apply for permanent residency of [any country/New Zealand] during the scholarship period or within two years of scholarship completion;
- agree that you and your spouse/partner and dependant children (if relevant) will leave New Zealand upon completion of your study programme and return directly to your home country for a minimum period of two years, in order to utilise the knowledge you have gained through your scholarship to contribute toward the social and/or economic development of my home country;
- agree that you and your spouse/partner and dependant children (if relevant) will not apply for a visa (excluding a short term visitor visa) to re-enter New Zealand within two years of scholarship completion.

Declaration

I confirm and declare that:

- a) I agree to the release of information in this application form and information relating to the scholarship or study to relevant authorities, in accordance with the New Zealand Privacy Act 1993, to enable placement in an education institution, consideration for a scholarship, collection of academic progress reports and results, and the ongoing administration and monitoring of the scholarship;
- b) I agree to the exchange of information between MFAT and authorities such as Immigration New Zealand (regarding your immigration status) or any other relevant government agency (e.g. New Zealand Inland Revenue or the New Zealand Qualifications Authority);
- c) I am not aware of any medical, personal or other circumstances (e.g. disability, illness, family or financial matters), which might prevent me from completing my study within the scholarship term;

I declare that the information provided about and by me in this application for a New Zealand ASEAN Scholars award is true, complete and correct to the best of my knowledge. I acknowledge that supplying false or misleading information is a serious offence under the New Zealand Crimes Act 1961 and will result in the New Zealand Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade (MFAT) withdrawing a scholarship, if offered.
